

THE INDEPENDENT ASSESSMENT PROCESS IS WINDING DOWN

NOTICE TO IAP CLAIMANTS

If you have not heard from the Adjudication Secretariat or from your lawyer in several months

This notice is addressed to former Indian Residential School (IRS) students who have an unresolved Independent Assessment Process (IAP) claim. If you applied, but are unsure about the status of your claim, or have any questions about your IAP application you can either:

- Contact your lawyer or legal representative;
- Call the toll-free IAP information line at 1.877.635.2648; or
- Visit our website at www.iap-pei.ca

WHAT IS THE IAP?

As one of the compensation programs established under the Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement, the IAP is the only option for former residential school students to resolve these claims, unless they opted out of the Settlement Agreement.

The deadline to submit an application to the IAP was September 19, 2012.

INDIAN RESIDENTIAL SCHOOLS CRISIS LINE 1.866.925.4419

Former Indian Residential School (IRS) students may call the IRS Crisis Line, a national, 24-hour toll-free support services operated by trained Aboriginal crisis counselors. The toll-free telephone number provides access to emotional and crisis referral services in both French and English. Counselors can also provide information about accessing other health supports available to claimants.
